Rev. Alicia Porterfield

A Georgia native, Alicia originally planned to teach English literature at the high school and college levels--but God had other plans! While serving at the BSU at UGA and as a summer missionary, Alicia experienced an unfolding call to ministry. Stepping out on faith, she headed to the Divinity School at Duke University, where she met Eric Porterfield. They married 1 1/2 years later & moved to Sanford, NC, where Eric served as senior pastor at the First Baptist Church & Alicia completed 2 years of chaplaincy training, served as chaplain for 6 years at Quail Haven Retirement Village, & had 3 boys in 5 years.

The family then moved to Wilmington, NC, where Alicia wrote adult Sunday School, Bible Study, & Missions curriculum and served as a supply preacher, retreat leader, Christian coach, & interim pastor of FBC Carolina Beach, NC. Sensing a call to serve together, Eric & Alicia began praying & God answered that prayer through Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, Huntington, WV where Alicia serves as Associate Minister for Adult Education and Eric serves as Senior Minister. Alicia enjoys learning & laughing with their 3 sports-minded boys, Davis, Luke, & Thomas.
